Help Us Finish Strong – Final Jerky Sale May 9!

Jerky sales are still underway, and we need your help to finish strong. It's been a slower year for the troop, and we still have inventory to sell with only one storefront opportunity remaining on May 9.

Signing up is easy—on the website, click the Jerky Sales button to claim a spot. This is a great way to earn money for your scouting adventures while supporting the troop and being part of the team. Let's work together to close out the season strong!

Summer Camp Near Bryce Canyon National Park

Troop 146 is gearing up for an exciting summer camp at Pine Lake Campground near Bryce Canyon, taking place July 25–August 1. Surrounded by beautiful scenery and fresh mountain air, scouts will spend the week building skills, enjoying the outdoors, and making lasting memories together.

The cost for camp is $200 per scout and $100 per adult. The first half of the payment is due by June 1, with the remaining balance due by July 6. If you have any questions, please reach out to Mr. Clough. Be sure to mark your calendars and get ready for a great week with the troop at Pine Lake!

CELEBRATING OUR SCOUTS – COURT OF HONOR MAY 18

Troop 146 will gather on May 18 for a Court of Honor as we celebrate the hard work, achievements, and growth of our scouts. This special evening recognizes rank advancements, merit badges, and the dedication each scout has shown along the way.

If you need to finish up a merit badge, please see Mrs. Blankinship as soon as possible. Following the ceremony, we'll have a hot dog bar as a time to gather, connect, and celebrate together—watch for the SignUpGenius link via email and on the website to help contribute.

We look forward to a meaningful evening honoring our scouts and all they've accomplished.

NEXT LEADERS WANTED – TROOP ELECTIONS IN JUNE

Troop 146 elections are coming up in June, and now is the time to start preparing. Leadership positions are a great way for scouts to grow, take on responsibility, and develop valuable leadership skills.

Each position will be held for six months, offering a meaningful opportunity to serve the troop and make an impact. If you're interested or have questions about any of the roles, please reach out to Mr. Clough for more information. Step up, get involved, and be part of leading Troop 146 forward!

Aim High – Shooting Sports Campout May 15–17

Troop 146 will head to the Johnson's property for a Shooting Sports Campout on May 15–17.

Scouts will have the opportunity to safely learn and practice shooting sports skills while enjoying a fun and active weekend outdoors.

Certified adults will be on hand to provide instruction and ensure a safe, well-supervised experience throughout the campout.

Permission forms and the packing list are available on the website. Come prepared and ready for a great weekend of learning, teamwork, and fun!

Stay in Sync – Subscribe to the Troop Calendar

Stay in the loop with our new calendar feature on the troop website. You can now subscribe to the Troop 146 calendar and have activities automatically show up on your personal calendar—no more guessing what's coming up. All activities will still be posted on the website as usual, so you can always check there as well.

To subscribe, go to the website and click on "Yearly Calendar" (top menu on desktop or dropdown menu on your phone). Scroll to the bottom of the calendar and click "Subscribe." It's an easy way to stay connected and never miss an event!

April Adventures – Learning, Skills, and Fun

April was a full and active month for Troop 146, packed with a great mix of learning, teamwork, and fun. Scouts braved the cooler weather with water games, built important skills through flag etiquette instruction, and spent time outdoors hiking and enjoying a ropes course that challenged both confidence, cooperation, and tent pitching skills! From skill-building to outdoor adventure, April offered something for everyone. It was a strong month for the troop and a great example of what scouting is all about.
